

Bruce Outridge Introduction

Bruce Outridge is an artist, author, consultant, and speaker. He has been a professional cartoonist for over a decade, author of four books on business and leadership, business and marketing consultant, and trainer and speaker for creative entrepreneurs and the transportation industry.

He is the host and producer of two podcasts, the Inspiring Youth television show and has been a columnist and social media expert for industry since 2007. This all began after a 25 year driving career as a professional truck driver and fleet supervisor.

He is a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers, the Hamilton Niagara Fleet Safety Council, the International Society of Caricature Artists, Association of Canadian Cartoonists, and the Burlington Chamber of Commerce.

He now combines his talents and expertise to show audiences how they can improve their teams, businesses, and careers through information and techniques.

Please welcome Bruce Outridge