

Bruce Outridge Biography / Introduction 2020

Bruce Outridge is an artist, author, media consultant, and speaker. He has been a professional cartoonist for over a decade, author of five books on business and leadership, media consultant, and inspirational speaker to groups helping inspire their audience.

Bruce is the host and producer of two podcasts, the Inspiring Youth television show and has been a columnist and social media expert for the transportation industry since 2007. This all began after a 25 year driving career as a professional truck driver and fleet supervisor.

Bruce is a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers, the Hamilton Niagara Fleet Safety Council, Oakville Arts Council, The Barbados Arts Council, the International Society of Caricature Artists, the Association of Canadian Cartoonists, and the Burlington Chamber of Commerce.